

Emami Foundation's text book lending programme

KOLKATA: Emami Foundation, the CSR and philanthropic arm of Emami Group of Companies, organised a textbook lending programme on Saturday covering 346 students of class XI and XII from 16 schools from three centres in Kolkata and Hooghly. The function was organised on B T Road and Haripal. Emami Foundation initiated the textbook lending programme with 71 underprivileged students in 2013. Since its inception, Emami Foundation has reached out to a total of 1,657

students of class IX--XII in schools of Kolkata and its suburbs and in Assam. HTC
