Explanatory Statement pursuant to Section 102(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 in respect of resolution at item no. 7 to 10

Item No. 7

With a view to raise long term financial resources for various capital expenditures and long term corporate requirements, the Board of Directors of the Company at its meeting held on May 13, 2015 has approved the issue of Unsecured Redeemable Non-Convertible Debentures ("NCDs") on private placement basis to Banks, Mutual Funds etc. for an amount not exceeding ₹700 crores (Rupees Seven hundred crores only), subject to the approval of the shareholders of the Company. Such NCDs are proposed to be issued at par, i.e., at face value, in one or more tranches within a period of 1 (one) year from the date of passing this Special Resolution. Further, the issue amount of NCDs will be within the overall borrowing limits of the Company as per Section 180 (1) (c) of the Act.

As per Sections 42 and 71 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") read with the Rules framed thereunder, a company offering or making an invitation to subscribe to NCDs on private placement basis is required to obtain the prior approval of the Shareholders by way of a Special Resolution. Such an approval can be obtained once a year for all the offers and invitations to be made for such NCDs during the year.

The Board commends the Special Resolution as per the accompanying Notice, for approval by the Shareholders of the Company.

None of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel of the Company or their respective relatives are in any way concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the aforesaid resolution.

Item No 8:

Under the erstwhile Section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956, the Board of Directors of a Company could, with the consent of the shareholders obtained by an Ordinary Resolution, borrow monies, apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's Bankers in the ordinary course of business, in excess of the aggregate of paid-up capital and free reserves of the Company, that is to say, reserves not set apart for any specific purpose.

The shareholders of the Company, through postal ballot resolution dated 18th November 2010 had accorded their consent to the Board of Directors for borrowing up to ₹3000 crores or the aggregate of the paid up capital and free reserves of the Company, that is to say, reserves not set apart for any specific purpose at the relevant time, whichever is higher.

Under the provisions of Section 180(1)(c) of the Act, which were made effective from September 12, 2013, the above powers can be exercised by the Board only with the consent of the shareholders obtained by a Special Resolution.

As such, it is necessary to obtain fresh approval of the shareholders by means of a Special Resolution, to enable the Board of Directors of the Company to borrow moneys, apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's Bankers in the ordinary course of business, in excess of the paid up capital and free reserves of the Company.

It is proposed to authorize the Board of Directors to borrow such monies (apart from temporary loans obtained in the ordinary course of business), provided that the total amount so borrowed by the Board shall not at any time exceed ₹1500 crores (Rupees Fifteen Hundred Crore) over and above the aggregate of Paid-up Share Capital and Free Reserves.

The Board commends the Special Resolution as per the accompanying Notice, for approval by the Shareholders of the Company.

None of the Directors and key managerial personnel of the Company or their respective relatives are concerned or interested, financially or otherwise, in the Resolution.
